OTJ (off the job) Training

'Training which is received by the apprentice within their practical period, during the apprentice's normal working hours, for the purpose of achieving the knowledge, skills and behaviours of the apprenticeship they are undertaking. By normal working hours we mean the hours for which the apprentice would normally be paid, excluding overtime'

- ✓ Total hours detailed in Training Plan
- ✓ Must be in work time (i.e. if it's at the weekend you need to take TOIL against it)
- ✓ Extra hours
- ✓ All modules are 'mapped' to KSBs (Knowledge Skills & Behaviours) so doing the 'degree' work counts towards your OTJ
